THE NEW PRESIDENT

Dr. Gloria Dean Randle Scott

The big news at Bennett College is the arrival of a new president. Dr. Gloria Dean Randle Scott became the school's eleventh president on the first of July 1987. For the second time in its 113 year history the school has chosen a woman president. The announcement was made in March of 1987 by Robert S. Chiles, Sr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees and the presidential search committee.

The new president is guided by an old adage: "Give a hungry man a fish and he's full for a day; teach him to fish and he'll be full the rest of his life." After being up for a presidential position at five colleges previously, the feeling wasn't right. Scott says "Bennett felt right". Being president at Bennett provides her with the opportunity to pursue a dual passion, academics and the advancement of her sisters. Scott also says that "I consider myself instrumental in promoting women and helping them go back to school as I was helped by other women." For Scott, things began to move full speed ahead; as she began to make plans for improvements and changes. Some of the improvements Scott would like to see is an enrollment increase from 700 to 1000 in the next five years. She feels that a stable student body population would stabilize the budget. Scott's other goals for the college include computerizing the campus, improving campus facilities, increasing the number of students attending graduate school, escalating student involvement, enhancing alumnae relations, and much more. Scott plans to give all her time and energy to guarantee that Bennett College honors its legacy and builds a unique future.

To show our appreciation we especially dedicate the book to you as we share and print "Phenomenal Woman" by Maya Angelou because you are all phenomenal to us.

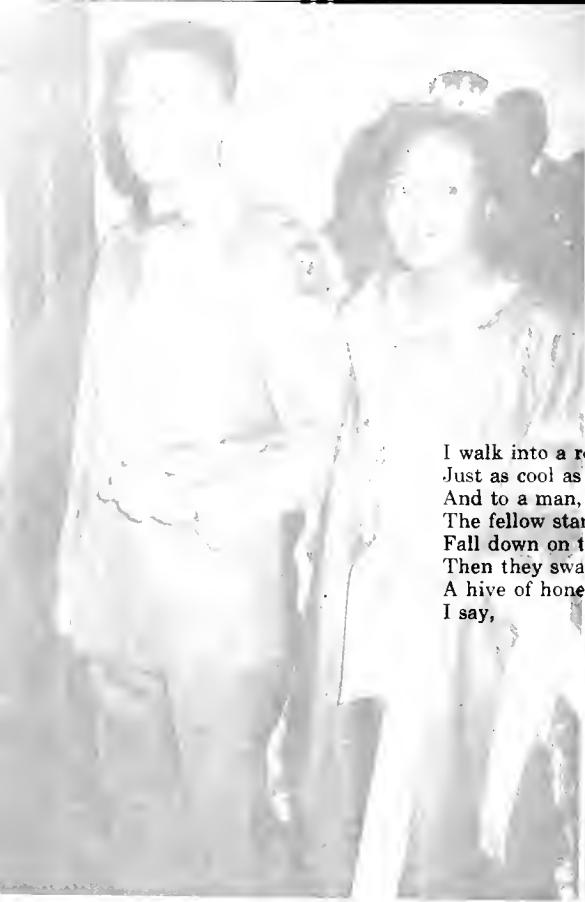

"Pretty women wonder where my secret lies.
I'm not cute or built to suit a fashion model's size.
But when I start to tell them,
They think I'm telling lies.
I say,
It's in the reach of my arms,
The span of my hips.

The stride of my step,
The curl of my lips.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

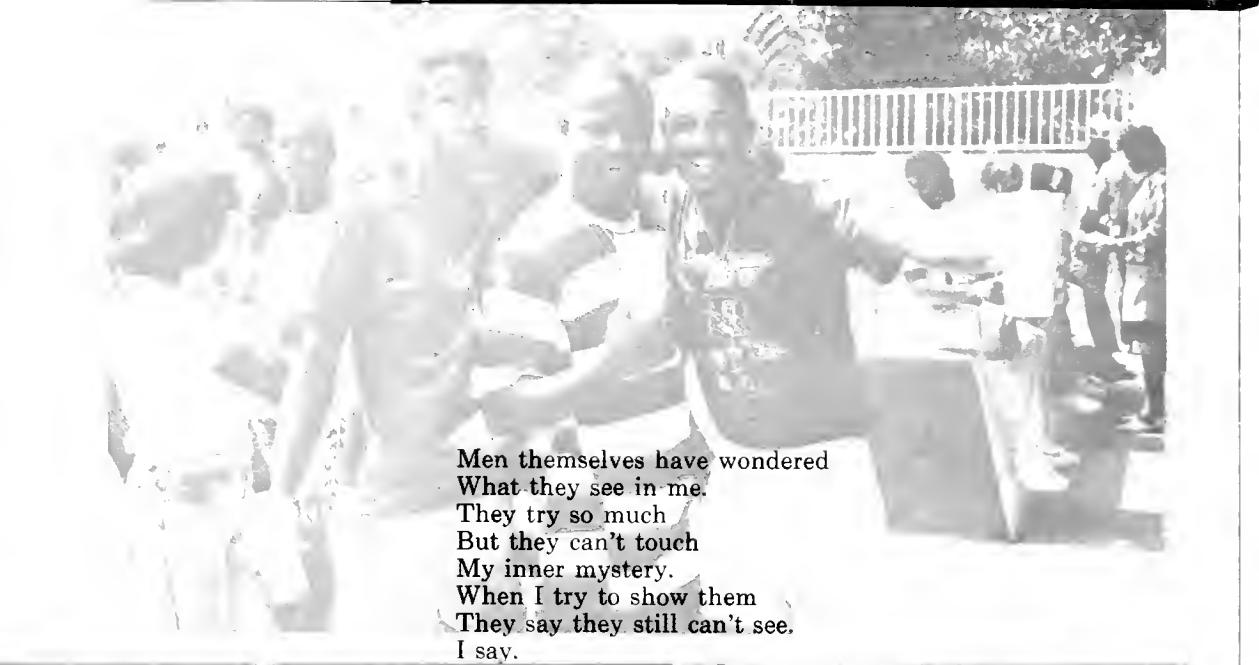

I walk into a room
Just as cool as you please,
And to a man,
The fellow stand or
Fall down on their knees.
Then they swarm around me,
A hive of honey bees.
I say,

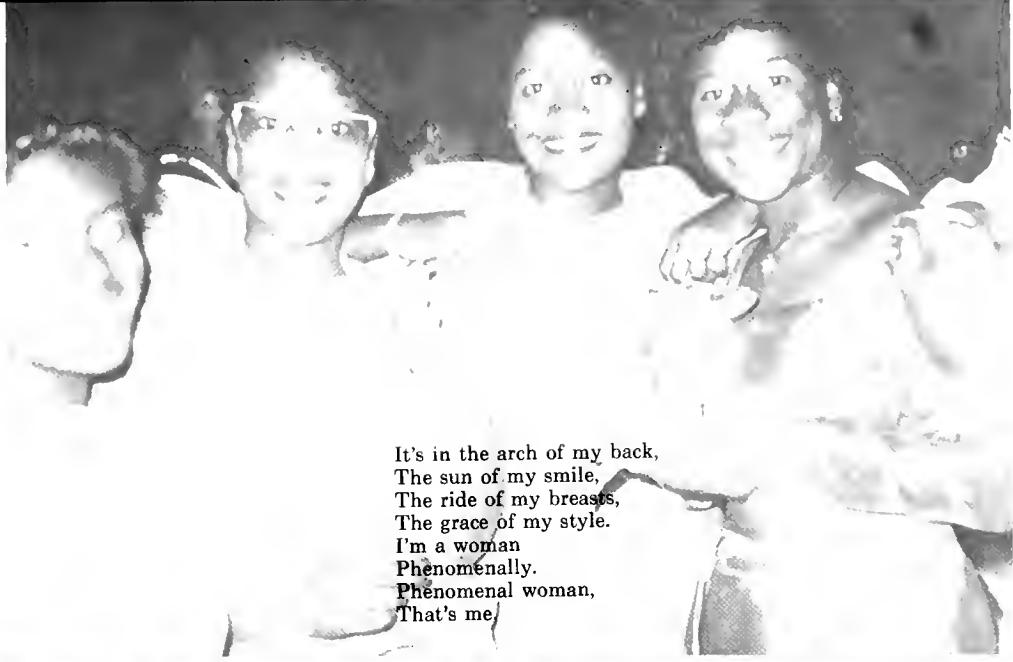

It's the fire in my eyes,
And the flash of my teeth,
The swing in my waist,
And the joy in my feet.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

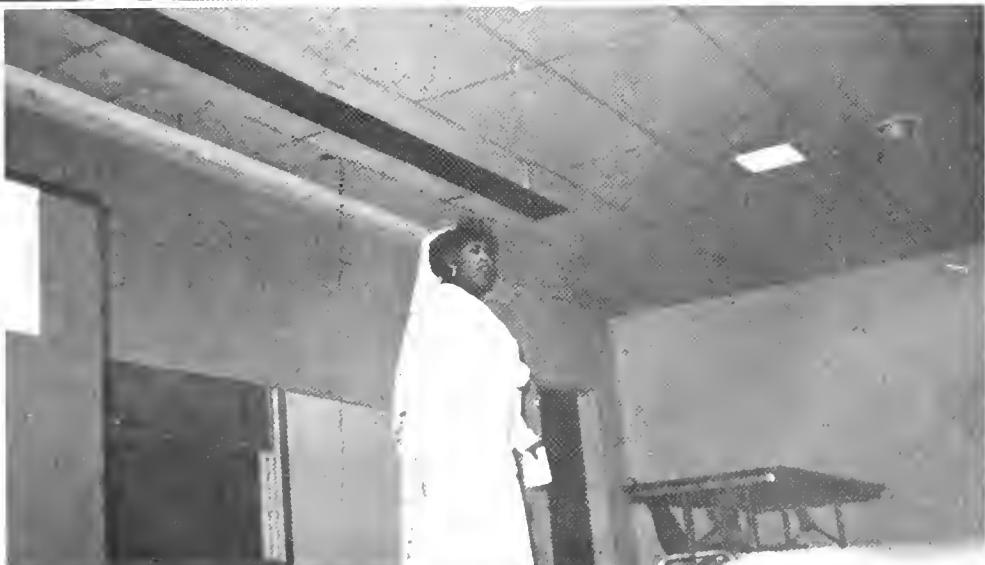

Men themselves have wondered
What they see in me.
They try so much
But they can't touch
My inner mystery.
When I try to show them
They say they still can't see.
I say.

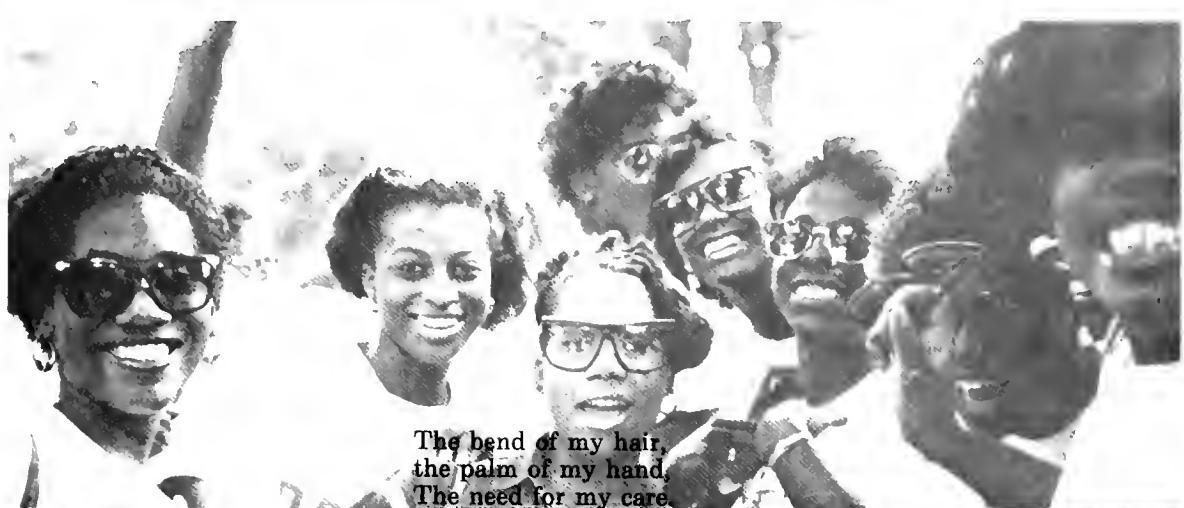

It's in the arch of my back,
The sun of my smile,
The ride of my breasts,
The grace of my style.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me!

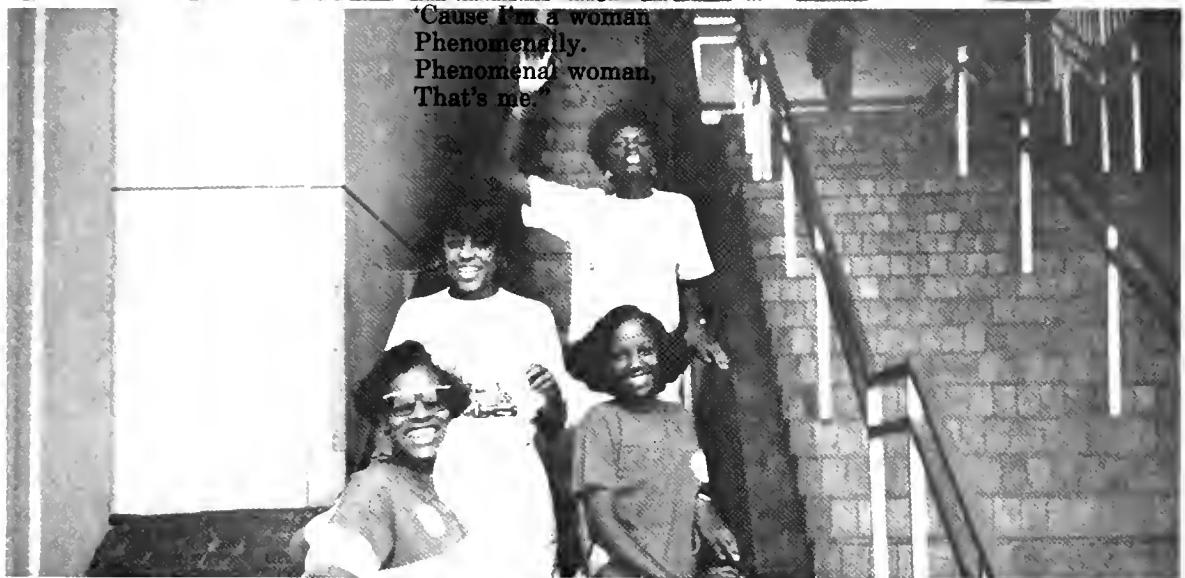

Now you understand
Just why my head's not bowed.
I don't shout or jump about
Or have to talk real-loud.
When you see me passing
It ought to make you proud.
I say.
It's in the click of my heels.

The bend of my hair,
the palm of my hand,
The need for my care.

'Cause I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

SENIOR
DAY

Tangie Stitt, Vice president, SGA speaks to her class

Little sisters always lend a hand

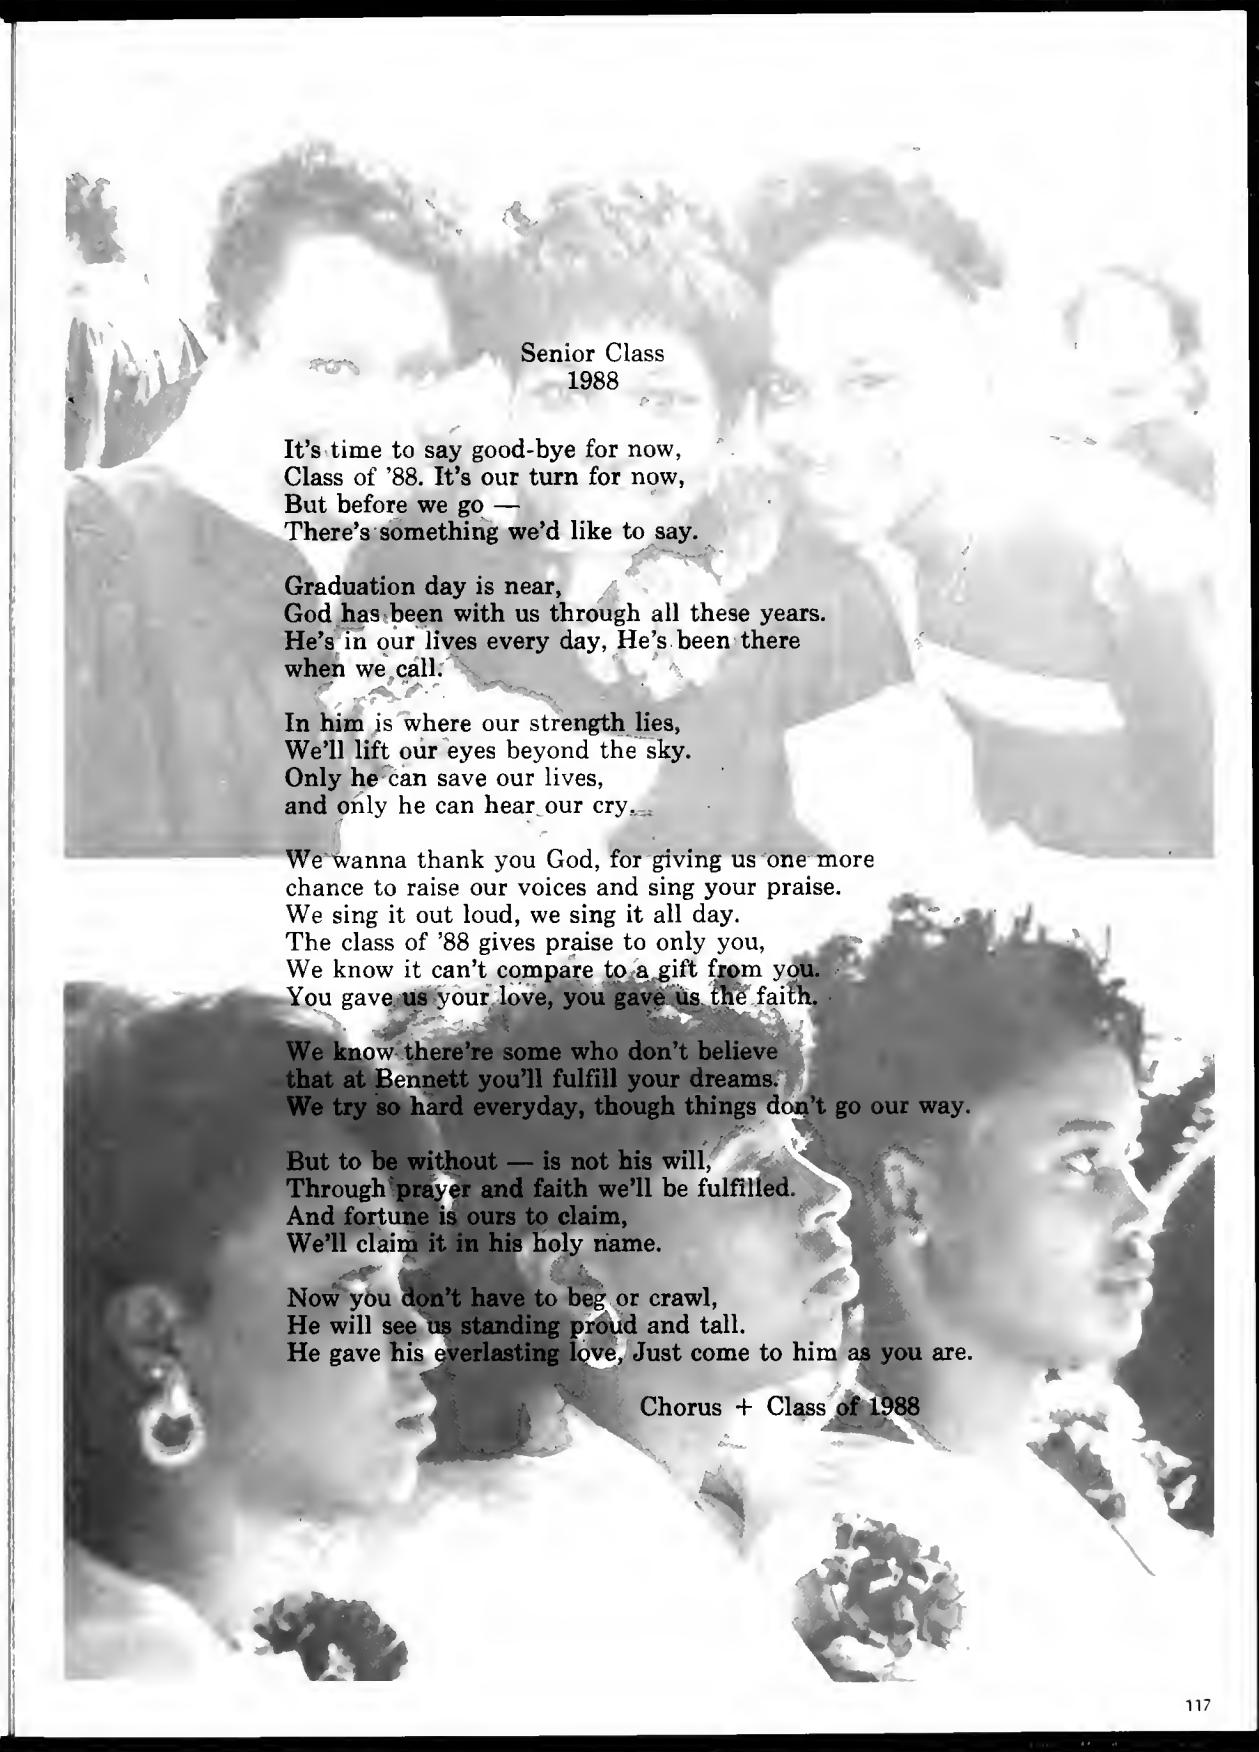

Senior sisters sing their final song

Senior sisters rejoice together

Senior Class
1988

It's time to say good-bye for now,
Class of '88. It's our turn for now,
But before we go —
There's something we'd like to say.

Graduation day is near,
God has been with us through all these years.
He's in our lives every day, He's been there when we call.

In him is where our strength lies,
We'll lift our eyes beyond the sky.
Only he can save our lives,
and only he can hear our cry.

We wanna thank you God, for giving us one more chance to raise our voices and sing your praise.
We sing it out loud, we sing it all day.
The class of '88 gives praise to only you,
We know it can't compare to a gift from you.
You gave us your love, you gave us the faith.

We know there're some who don't believe that at Bennett you'll fulfill your dreams.
We try so hard everyday, though things don't go our way.

But to be without — is not his will,
Through prayer and faith we'll be fulfilled.
And fortune is ours to claim,
We'll claim it in his holy name.

Now you don't have to beg or crawl,
He will see us standing proud and tall.
He gave his everlasting love, Just come to him as you are.

Dr. Virginia A. Tucker, Professor of Communications, is a native of San Antonio, Texas. She attended public schools in New York, Hawaii and Florida. Dr. Tucker received the B.A. degree in Journalism and English from Southwest Texas State University in 1952 and the M.A. degree in English and American Literature from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1964. In 1968, she was awarded the Southern Fellowship for Graduate Study. Dr. Tucker received the Ph.D. degree in English Literature from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1973. She is the recipient of the first Ph.D. degree in English given by the same university.

Dr. Tucker has written many proposals for Bennett College, including the Title III — Audio Lingual Laboratory and the United Negro College Fund/Mobil Oil Grant. She has contributed to and assisted in editing numerous proposals.

She has served as Coordinator of Freshman English, Director of the Humanities Division, Coordinator of the Accelerated Study Option, and Chairperson of the Department of Communications.

She and her husband, Mr. James Tucker, former Director of The Weatherspoon Art Gallery at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, enjoy collecting antiques.

Retirement

Memorial

Mrs. Rosa Hooker, a senior at Bennett College, 1953

ROSA FENNELL HOOKER was born on May 11, 1931. On May 16, 1988 the Lord called home one of his dearly beloved children.

Rosa was the daughter of Rosa Fennell and the late John Porter Fennell.

Rosa Fennell was united in marriage to Coley Hooker, Jr. To this union two children were born, a daughter Cheryl and a son Grady who preceeded her in death.

Mrs. Hooker was a native of Burgaw, N.C. She received the Bachelor of Arts Degree in English and Business Education from Bennett College in 1953. She taught two years in the Duplin County School System and began her career at Bennett College as a secretary in the Purchasing Office. Later, she became the Purchasing Officer. Mrs. Hooker was extremely active in civic and community organizations. She was a member of the American Management Association of Education Buyers, The American Management Society, and The Metropolitan Council of Negro Women.

Mrs. Hooker was a member of St. Matthews United Methodist Church. She was a faithful member of the Chancel Choir, Bible Studies, Older Adult Program and United Methodist Women. Mrs. Rosa Hooker will long be remembered for her kindness, good nature and her willingness to lend a helping hand to others. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Coley; daughter, Cheryl of the home; granddaughter Fallen Evon of Del Ray Beach, Florida; her mother, Mrs. Rosa Fennell of Burgaw, NC; four brothers, Mr. James A. Fennell of Winston-Salem, NC, Mr. Grady Fennell, Mr. John P. Fennell all of Burgaw, NC; two sisters, Mrs. Bernetha Holmes of Castle Hayes, NC and Mrs. Lilly Randolph of Bolivia, NC.

ALMA MATER

*Bennett now our voices raise,
Harmonies of grateful praise;
We thy daughters find thee fair
Loyally thy colors bear,
Truth and honor in thy halls,
Faith and love within thy walls;
Ever dear to us thou art.
Firm within each loyal heart.*

CHORUS

*Alma Mater, now we sing,
Hail the light that thou dost bring;
True we've been throughout the past,
True to thee while life shall last.*

*May we never smirch the good
Gendered here in sisterhood;
May we ever choose aright,
Guide but by honor bright;
Ever lovelier shalt thou live,
As thy daughters freely give;
Ever glorious above,
Testimonies of our love,*

*'Til the evening shadows fall
'Til we heed our last clear call
Mother, may we offer thee
Lives of worth and purity?
Go with us throughout the years,
Smile on us in doubts and fears;
Bless us with thy tender care,
Mother, fairest of the fair!*
